

The Jew On The Line To The Gas Chamber

There are a few thoughts and quotes that have stayed with me over my 75 years; each originating someplace different, but each having their ultimate effect on my perspective of the world.

As a Jew I have always wondered why so many Jews waited so long to try to leave Germany and why so few truly resisted - even at the very end - the end being lined up in front of a ditch facing a machine gun mounted on the back of a truck or on a train platform waiting to be huddled into a cattle car for deportation to a death camp.

It seemed that broken windows and Jewish stars being painted on Jewish businesses or being forced to wear a yellow star, wasn't enough. There were many different colored cloth badges, each as an identifier of some group the NAZI's wanted to alienate.

For many Jews it came down to being in a line in a concentration camp, waiting to be gassed.

My thought has always been, did the Jew waiting on line think to himself or herself "That someone will stop this before it is too late?"

I now wonder what my fellow Americans are thinking as radical America hating mobs are taking to the streets, beating on people and burning down neighborhoods. Are we thinking that "Somebody will stop this before it's too late."

In reality, there is only Donald Trump standing in the way of the Globalist terror that has been brought to the US by the very people that brought it to other countries for many years. Yes, this time it is America that the bad actors in CIA, and the Department of State and their hired on NGO's have in their sights.

I remember reading in one of Noam Chomsky's books on Central America the phrase that went something like this: "What makes you think that what the US Government has done to foreign populations it won't do to the domestic population.?"

It was the phrase "Domestic Population" that stood out for me. I suddenly saw the world from a different perspective. I realized that for some people in power the American population was just another population, that could and might someday be a target in their plan. That time is at hand. It has become obvious that the riots and the attacks on American culture, the American way of life and the attacks on our President are orchestrated. They are orchestrated in much the same way that government overthrows have been orchestrated since the Dulles brothers overthrew Mohammad Mosaddegh in 1953.

Back then it was the CIA, DoS and some hired on private actors that were involved. And right through the Colour Revolutions that were orchestrated after the breakup of the Soviet Union, into the Arab Spring and the Ukraine 2014 Maidan Revolution, it was still the CIA, DoS and well funded NGO's that have run the coups.

Well, the coup being run here is orchestrated much in the same way as the coups that our Deep State players have orchestrated overseas. Many of the same tactics are being used. In fact, many of the same NGO's are involved. We only hear about Soros and his Open Society Funded organizations, but there are more, many more. They are all Globalists, what years before may have been portrayed in a Hollywood movie as an international cartel trying to control the world. The Globalists do run the world - well - almost.

There are those who are resisting the Globalist cabal, those like Donald Trump, and those in Trump's America, and they are listed for elimination. Regardless of how we see the world, and how much we hold up the marvelous US Constitution, we are too much like Neville Chamberlain at Munich waving the Peace Accords, taking the threat too lightly and believing that words can solve the problem. However much we might revere the 'Greatest Generation' that marched out from the farms and bakeries and factories and colleges to fight Fascism, that was more than 80 years ago, and there is no guarantee that today's America will just as boldly march out to meet the current threat.

Americans have become spoiled by the ease with which we have maintained our way of life. We have become smug about our being the greatest nation on Earth. We have become smug about our Liberty. Just because we are free today, does not mean that we will be free tomorrow.

Whether it is Pastor Martin Neimoller lamenting that because he waited until "they" came for him that it was too late, or Patrick Henry asking why his compatriots sat idle while the fighting was already under way, the lessons from history are all around us; and history has not ended. The American Civil War was well under way in places like Bleeding Kansa well before the Confederacy fired on Fort Sumpter.

The Federal government has been attacked, cities have been attacked, and now citizens have been attacked by an inflated response to a virus, a response unlike any we have ever seen. An overly aggressive response that has practically destroyed our economy. I have taken off my face mask. The curve has been flattened. Anything beyond is asking me to subvert my being to the whims of government in the name of a false cry for public safety.

The question is not when will someone stop this madness before it gets to me?
The question is when will you and I stop the madness?

The gale is already here, and the time for words without resultant organization and action has ended. As of today I am actively seeking those like minded citizens who are willing to stand in the streets and oppose those who would harm my America.
